

Trauma
Gender
Substance Use

Webinar Series

Braiding Together Indigenous Wellness, Trauma- and Gender-Informed Approaches in the Substance Use Field

October 19, 2017 • 9:00-10:30 am Pacific
• 12:00-1:30 pm Eastern

Featuring

Carol Hopkins, Executive Director, Thunderbird Partnership Foundation
Renee Linklater, Manager of Aboriginal Community Engagement, CAMH
Brenda Restoule, Clinical Consultant, Nipissing First Nation Health Services
Dawn Lavand, Outreach Worker, and Tammy Rowan, Program Director, The Mothering Project/Manito Ikwe Kagiikwe

This 90-minute webinar will focus on substance use responses that integrate Indigenous wellness, strength based, gender informed and trauma informed approaches. The presenters will share wisdom from initiatives that have brought trauma and gender informed practice into work with Indigenous participants.

Who Should Attend

This webinar is for people working in or planning substance use, health and wellness and social services.

Project Goals

This webinar is part of a two-year process of knowledge exchange to guide the further integration of trauma informed and gender informed practice into prevention, health promotion, treatment, harm reduction and policy affecting those with substance use issues in Canada.

Register

Please register at:

[https://bccewh.
hostedincanadasurveys.ca/](https://bccewh.hostedincanadasurveys.ca/)

Sponsors

Centre of Excellence for Women's Health in partnership with Canadian Centre on Substance Abuse and agencies across Canada working with the Trauma Gender Substance Use project.

These webinars have been made possible by a financial contribution from Health Canada. The views expressed do not necessarily represent the views of Health Canada.

For further information contact
Rose.Schmidt@cw.bc.ca